HE IS AMONG THE MISSING

So is the Wholesale Grocery He Was Going to Start.

LEFT A BOARD BILL UNPAID

Hires Clerks, Packers, Drays, etc., to Run a Large Store But Fails to Materialize When He is Wanted—An Interesting Story of How Some Bellefonters Were Soaked.

About three weeks ago a stranger dropped into Bellefonte and registered at the Brant house as "H. M. Snelling, Pittsburg, Pa." He was a rather well dressed man and everything about him indicated that he was thoroughly posted in business ways—in fact too well as we will tell you later on.

Mr. Snelling, as he represented himself to be, went at once to Geo. T. Bush and rented the vacent store room next to the Watchman office and had two contracts drawn up and signed. He kept one and Bush the other. He then announced to the world that he was going to start a wholesale grocery. To a REPUBLICAN reporter last week he said he expected to be in full operation in a few days and that his business would be strictly wholesale. He then commenced to hire clerks, salesmen, draymen and etc, and the fancy prices he was going to pay them indicated that he was going to do business on a grand scale. Ed. Gilland, left his position at Cunningham's cigar store to work for the new firm for $60 a month and expenses. Burt Henderson was to get $40 a month and "expenses." Daniel Gallagher was to be rewarded for his services as a clerk in the sum of $25 per month and "expenses." James Foreman was also going to get a nice salary and "expenses." Jake Bartlett and Curt Johnston were both hired to do his draying. All of these employes were to report on Monday morning Nov. 18 for duty—the time he had formerly told the REPUBLICAN man he was going to commence business.

Of course he had to have some stationery and this he had done at the Keystone Gazette office. He got the stationery; and the Gazette people got "nit." This enterprising "wholesale grocery man" then wormed himself into the good graces of the owners of a creamery not many miles from Bellefonte and bought a lot of creamery butter and said he would send a check for it in a few days as his brother was coming to town soon to go into business with him. Snelling told a newly found friend here that his brother was coming to Bellefonte on Friday afternoon, November 15, on the 4.52 train. On that afternoon Snelling was standing talking to his friend in front of the Bush House. The latter was very anxious to see the "brother" arrive in Bellefonte. When the whistle blew announcing that the 4.52 train was near Bellefonte the gentleman suggested that they go over to the station and meet the long looked for "brother." "Oh Yes," replied Snelling, "I almost forgot that." They walked over to the station and Snelling disappeared in the crowd some place while his friend was standing there gazing into the car windows looking for the expected "brother." The train pulled out but no brother appeared and when his friend looked for Snelling he found that person was among the missing.

A REPUBLICAN representative called at the Brant House and was there informed by landlord Henry Yeager that Snelling had left his hotel on Friday evening and although he did not say he was going away, he never returned. He left nothing but a small grip and a worn out suit of under clothing and Mr. Yeager is whistling for eight or nine days board which Snelling "forgot" to pay. Mr. Yeager received a telegram on Saturday from Snelling who was then at Williamsport, stating that he would be up on the next train—but Yeager hasn't seen him since. Where he is now nobody seems to know, but there is one thing certain and that is that he is not in Bellefonte and probably never will be again.

It was truly a funny sight to see all the clerks gathering at the store room on Monday morning ready to go to work. But when they glanced into the room they found that nothing had been done to the room as repairing it and when they tried to get in they found the door was locked. They are now hunting their "employer" but seem to be at a loss to know where he is. The contract for the store room which he was to keep is now in the safe at the Brant House—and there it will likely stay if it can only be removed by Snelling himself calling for it. He is in about $125 and it is lucky he did not 'salt' the people in this community still deeper. His wholesale grocery is a grand myth and now the merchants can again go back to their old routine of business from which they were so suddenly aroused. The carload of canned goods which Snelling was "looking for" every day has not yet arrived and probably never will. Good-bye Mr. Snelling, Good-bye.

Fisher's Comedians.

"A Cold Day" will soon be here. Our fun and music loving people will now have a chance to see a farce comedy that has played from New York to San Francisco, and from Winnepeg to New Orleans. This is the ninth successful season of "A Cold Day." The fun comes quick and fast, there is no plot in it, and one only loses time if they try to find it. The best farce comedies have no plot, as it is impossible to make funny sayings, situations, and plot work together successfully. Plots belong to dramas, and not to farce comedies. "A Cold Day" is for laughing purposes only and as such has been a success. Perkins D Fisher has created in ('Abe') a character that has made for him a most excellent reputation, as well as a small fortune. Miss Jean Delmar, who is Mrs. Fisher in private life, is a clever actress, and a singer of excellent reputation, having been principal soprano of many first class opera companies. The balance of the company have a metropolitan reputation. This attraction will appear at Garman's Opera House on Thursday evening Nov, 28th. Seats now on sale at Parrish's drug store.

Giving Thanks.

Thursday is Thanksgiving, a day set apart for the re-uniting of home ties and a general giving of thanks by the people. The DAILY NEWS is so thankful that it hardly knows how to express itself. We are thankful the ink is'nt frozen up and that paper is still within reach of our buying. Although we will not have any turkey to eat to-morrow still we are thankful that perhaps somebody else will. We have'nt tasted turkey for more than four years; yet we are thankful that somebody else has and we are glad they will tell us all about it. We can smack our lips when they tell us how good it was. If we can't enjoy all the pleasures of a turkey dinner, we can at least attend church and sit beside those who can afford these luxuries.

Whateyer you do, be thankful. We always are. While we see nothing ahead of us but starvation, we still don't care. However an invitation out to a turkey dinner would'nt be refused as that would be impolite.

A State College Wedding.

A very pretty wedding was that which was solemnized at State College at 12 o'clock Thursday uniting for life Mr. Roger Bowman and Miss Lydia C. Musser. The wedding ceremony was performed at the home of the bride in the presence of a number of friends. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Musser who live near State College. She is well known in Bellefonte having visited here several times at the residence of her sister, Mrs. D. O. Etters. The groom is a Philadelphian and graduated a short time ago from State College. We wish the newly married couple much success throughout life.

—The portable sawmill of Marks & Campbell, situated on the mountain south of Laughlinstown, Westmoreland county, was completely destroyed Friday evening by the boiler exploding. John Clark, a young teamster, single, of Ligonier township, was instantly killed. A piece of the boiler struck him, tearing off the top of his head, also one foot, beside cutting him almost in two. Martin Campbell, one of the owners, had his skull fractured, besides being otherwise seriously injured, but hopes are had for his recovery. Aaron Marks, another owner, was considerably cut about the face as well as being slightly hurt otherwise. The mill is a total wreck. The explosion was due to the bad condition of the boiler.

—The Dubois morning Courier appeared on Saturday in an eight page issue-an increase of four pages. This same paper recently reduced its price to one cent per copy.

—The Revival services at the A. M. E Church which were commenced about two weeks ago have already produced good results. There have been so far, thirteen conversions and there are ten at the altar at the present time.

Thanksgiving Services.

General Thanksgiving services will be held in the A. M. E. church, Rev. H. A. grant, pastor, this evening commencing at 7.30 o'clock. All are invited to attend.

—The building occupied on the first floor by Charles Brion as a general store and the second floor by David Foltz and family, located at Crescent, Lycoming county, was totally consumed by fire Friday night last. Loss about $12,000; insured.

TR'ED TO MURDER A PRIEST

Arsenic and Paris Green in the Chalice.

FORTUNATELY THE PLOT FAILED

The Conspirators Had intended that Father Jakimowicz, of Mt. Carmel, Should Meet His Fate at Mass.

Mount Carmel, Pa., Nov. 25.—A villainous plot to murder Rev. Father Jakimowiez by putting poison in the chalice from which he drank wine at mass was only frustrated by the robbery of the church by the would-be assassins. The arsenic and paris green that had been placed in the sacred cup and the several vials used by the priest were luckily discovered by him when apprised of the burglary. The conspirators had intended the priest should meet a tragic fate at mass yesterday morning and that the worshipers should witness the assassination. The fact that a lawsuit in which the priest is interested will come up for trial in a few days adds a mysterious meaning to the dark plot.

That the church had been robbed was discovered by the disorder in the vestry. Not having been satisfied with the money, the thieves tampered with the most precious instruments used in the services of communion. The priest had himself carefully polished the sacred cup on Saturday and placed it in the proper niche. He took it down and saw that a peculiar greenish liquid was in the bottom on the chalice. The priest examined it and found that the solution contained arsenic and Paris green. Rev. Jakimowicz also discovered that several phials used in the services had been partly filled with the deadily poison.

The priest, soon after the dreadful truth was revealed was obliged to conduct mass. Later in the day he informed the police authorities, but no arrests have been made. Rev. Father Jakimowiez has had a troublesome time ever since he accepted the St. Joseph charge.

An attempt was made last night to blow up the parsonage with dynamite, but the plot was unearthed in time to avert disaster. Recently a man and his wife brought action against Rev. Father Jakimowiez for an alleged assault upon the latter. The priest waived a hearing and entered the necessary bail, at once began action against his accusers. The case will be tried next week, when sensational developments will occur.

A Mine Train Wrecked.

Johnstown, Pa., Nov. 26.—By the breaking of an axle on a car of a cable train in the Cambria Iron company's mill mine late this evening, 11 miners were seriously injured, one probably fatally. The injured are:

Michael Sewarla, fracture of lift thigh.
John Groto, badly injured limbs.
Andrew Mekalko fracture right leg, which will be amputated.
Marten Akeraton, both feet crushed.
John Shuagala, contusion of both legs.
Peter Dudock, severe injury to right ankle.
—— Smith, injured about body.

Three Slaves, names unknown, were slightly injured. The accident happened at 6 o'clock when the miners boarded a cable train in the mines, three miles under a mountain, to return home. The train was running at a high rate of speed, when an axle on one of the cars broke, wrecking the train. The men were caught in the crash, and buried under the wreck. There was the wildest confusion for a few minutes. Finally, those who escaped injury went to the assistance of the less fortunate, and rescued them from the wreck. All of the injured are now in the Cambria hospital.

Will Be a Democrat.

The commission of the postmaster at Curwensville expires in a few weeks and that place is now in the throes of a post-office war. The next appointee will be a Democrat but there are reasonable assurances that he will be the last of that faith, for several decades, at least.

—Thursday night thieves visited the residence of Mrs. Diamond, near Dennison, Westmoreland county, and stole all her poultry, taking 25 turkeys and 85 chickens. They broke open the hen house and took them therefrom, hauling them away in a wagon. There is no clue to the thieves.

—It is indeed gratifying to announce that W. B. Maitland is gradually improving and will no doubt soon be able to be around again. The News hopes his complete recovery is not far distant.

SPLASH "LET GO."

Hundreds of Lock Haven People Witness the Breaking of the Dam.

The splash of which so much has been said for several weeks past was "let go" Tuesday morning about 9 o'clock. Early in the morning log drivers, with cant hooks and pike poles, began to assemble at the dam, and the big cables which were to throw down the splash dam at the proper time were placed in position. Erie Mail train when it arrived at 8 o'clock brought a delegation of log drivers from Williamsport, and the two forces united numbered upwards of 40 men. When everything was in readiness a team of horses began pulling on the cables on each side of the river, the braces of the splash dam were broken and in a few moments a four foot flood was pouring over the breast of the dam. The log drivers commenced their work at once and followed up the floating logs, pushing them from the shore into the centre of the steam and rolling the big ones over the shallow places into deeper water.

Advices from Clearfield are that it rained there nearly all last night, not hard, but steady. There was an 18 inch flood at Clearfield at 10 o'clock this forenoon, and the indications were that there would be a good rafting flood by to-night.

The breaking of the splash dam was witnessed by several hundred people, most of whom were caught in the heavy shower of rain that fell just at the time and were thoroughly drenched.—Lock Haven Express.

The Greensburg-Jeannette Bridge Row.

Greensburg, Pa., Nov. 26.—Argument was heard yesterday in Philadelphia, before Chief Justice Sterrett and Justice Mitchell, of the State Supreme court, on a plea for a supersedeas, made by the Pennsylvania Railroad company against the Greensburg and Jeannette Trolly company, in the matter of the bridge dispute. The granting of the writ would stop all work on the electric line. A decision is expected to-morrow. At the hearing here, this significant remark was made by Justice Mitchell: "Unless the Pennsylvania company can establish that the two bridges at Greensburg and Jeanette are its property (a fact found negatively by Judge Rayburn here), it cannot have much standing in court."

The Mill Hall Brick Works.

During the past six weeks over 350,000 bricks have been shipped by cars and wagons from the Mill Hall brick worke and orders and inquries are being received nearly every day. These orders and inquiries come from all parts, including Baltimore, Philadelphia, Boston, Altoona, Tyrone, Bellefonte, Revono, Lewistown and Philipsburg. Wherever the Mill Hall brick are used the most flattering testimonials are given as to the quality.

The outlook is very encouraging for next year, and it is expected that next summer will be a very prosperous season at the Mill Hall brick works. The increase in trade at the Mill Hall works keeps them busy shipping brick.—Lock Haven Express.

Will Announce in Both Counties.

Concerning the change made recently by the Republicans of Indiana and Jefferson counties in their method of making nominations, the Jeffersonian says: "Candidates will be required to announce in both counties, and the one receiving the largest vote at the primaries will be declared the nominee of the party. The day of senatorial conferees in this district is past with the Republicans. The new plan will doubtless insure the renomination of Senator Mitchell, for a dozen reasons we might name."

NOVEMBER COURT IN SESSION

Appropriate Resolutions Adopted in Memory of the Late Judge Rich.

MANY CASES ALREADY SETTLED

Civil and Criminal Suits—Both Heard So Far—Some Interesting and Spicy Proceedings For the Spectators.

The November term of court convened in the Court house on Monday morning at 9 o'clock with Judges Love and Faulkner on the bench.

The greater part of the morning was taken up in the presenting of petitions and motions by the different members of the bar. The list of grand jurors was called and twenty-one members answered to their names. Col. Andrew Gregg, of Potter township was chosen as foreman.

The constables of the different boroughs and townships made their several returns for this term of court. Judge Furst then rose and called the attention of the court to the death of Associate Judge Benjamin Rich, and presented the resolution of the members of the Bar—the committee appointed by the Bar of Centre County.

RESOLUTIONS.

The committee appointed by the Bar of Centre county to report a suitable minute upon the death of Hon Benjamin Rich, respectfully reports the following resolutions:

"That we deeply deplore the unexpected death of Judge Rich, one of the Associate Judges of our court; in his death we each feel a personal loss. In the short period of time in which he was associated with us as a member of the court, we all learned to esteem him as an upright and intelligent citizen, fair and impartial in his treatment of the members of the Bar, attentive in the performance of his duties, and desirous only to discharge his official obligations with fidelity.

He possessed the confidence and esteem, not only of the court and Bar, but also of the public. In all his conduct, he was governed and directed by good common sense, a broad view of the rights of suitors, and a disposition to do right, irrespective of the parties litigant.

He was well qualified for his office; his department on the bench was dignified and courteous, quiet and unassuming. He recognized the great labor of counsel in the trial of important cases; and he was not disposed to increase that labor by exacting of counsel more than could reasonably be done; and therefore, he was always willing to concede as much time as was necessary in the proper transaction of the business of the court.

It was with pain and solicitude we noticed at a recent session of the court, the first manifestations of sickness, which resulted in his death on the 17th of the present month. He died at the age of 66 years. His seat will forever remain vacant as under the constitution of 1864 his office ceases in all districts, upon becoming a separate Judicial District.

We extend to the family of Judge Rich our heart felt sympathy in the bereavement which has fallen upon his widow and children; and as evidence thereof, we request the court to cause this minute to be entered on record and that the clerk of the court be directed to furnish a cercified copy thereof to his widow."

A. O. FURST.
W. C. HEINLE,
C. M. BOWER,
ELLIS L. ORVIS,
JOHN BLANCHARD.

After the reading of this minute, brief addresses were made by ex-Judge A. O. Furst, Ellis L. Orvis and Hon. John G. Love after which court adjourned, until 2 o'clock Monday afternoon. It will be of interest to note right here living ex-associate Judges in the Centre county court. They are: Hon. Samuel Frank, of Rebersburg, Hon. Chester Munson, of Philipsburg, and Hon. Thomas F. Riley, of Boalsburg. The President Judges are Hon. Charles Mayer of Lock Haven, Hon J. B. McEnally, of Clearfield, and Hon. A O. Furst of Bellefonte.

At two o'clock court convened and the list of traverse jurors was called. Forty-four jurors answered to their names and several of them were then excused owing to sickness. The afternoon session was mostly taken up in hearing petitions and motions in the Orphans court.

Civil cases as follows were then taken up before commencing the Quarter sessions list:

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON.

Arguments in the Colyer assault and battery case occupied the greater part of this afternoon. A verdict of guilty on the first count was brought in and not guilty on the second count.

Judge Stake Speaks Out.

Hagerstown, Md., Nov. 26.—The November term of circuit court convened today. In his charge to the grand jury, Judge Stake called attention to a publication to the effect that two wagon loads of "floaters" were brought into Clear Spring on election day.

"If this is true," said the court, "it is your duty to see that those guilty of the attempt to debauch the public ballot should be brought to justice without delay."

A sensation was created a moment later when Judge Stake, seeing a juror in the audience, who had been drawn on the regular panel, called out: "Mr. Remsburg, you were discharged from duty as a juror because I understand you were handling whisky on election day. I want no such men to act as jurors while I am on the bench."

Mr. Remsburg said nothing and the court went on with its business.

Rather Slow in Surrendering.

Pittsburg, Nov. 26—This afternoon a well dressed young man, giving the name E. F. Smith, called at the police headquarters and informed Inspector McKelvey that he was the party wanted for assaulting G Johnson, of Allegheny, on Sixth avenue, two weeks ago and from the effects of which Johnson died last Thursday. Smith is an engineer for the Second avenue Traction company and says he would have surrendered sooner but could not get away from his business. Smith says Johnston applied a vile epithet to him as he passed and knocked off his hat. Smith says he struck Johnson in self defense. Smith has employed an attorney and will give bail for his appearance for court.

Sacrilegious Robbers.

Chambersburg, Pa., Nov. 26.—It was discovered Sunday morning by the janitor that Trinity Protestant Episcopal church, Chambersburg, had been robbed of everything valuable that could be carried off. Among the articles stolen was an expensive silver chalice, a jeweled altar cross given by Dr. Morris, of Philadelphia, and candle-sticks, and the altar desk, the gift of Mrs. Breese, wife of Captain S. L. Breese, United States navy.

Recently Corpus Christi Catholic church was similarly looted and a few days ago a Carlisle church was robbed. It is thought the same gang of robbers has been operating among alb these churches.

—The Adams Express office at Mt. Union was robbed of a watch and a pair of spectacles on Sunday night. The articles were in the safe which was broken open. The loss is estimated at $35.

A BULLET'S WILD RANGE.

A Gun in the Hands of Some Unknown Person Used Carelessly.

On Wednesday evening Willie Rees, son of G. W. Rees, of this place, who lives on Willowbank street, was out delivering a bucket of milk. He had completed his errand and was returning home. He had a basket hanging on his arm and a small tin bucket setting on the lid of the basket. He was walking along leisurely when suddenly something struck the bucket, knocking it to the ground and as might be expected, naturally scaring the little boy very badly. He however picked up the bucket and upon showing it to his mother when he reached home, it was found that a deep dinge had been made in it, indicating that it had been struck with a bullet. Fortunately no other damage was done although the little fellow might have been killed.

This should be a warning to users of guns. Be very careful where and when you shoot. If you have nothing to shoot at and must shoot, be sure and aim up in the air.

Trial of Bank Officers.

Philadelphia, Nov. 22.—The trial of the officers of the Middletown National bank for the alleged misappropriation of the institution's funds, was to have begun before Judge Butler to-day in the United States district court. Owing to a misunderstanding between the district attorney and council for the defendants as to which one of the accused should be called first or trial the case was not started to-day, but went over until 11 o'clock Monday morning.

The defendants are Charles W. Raymond, president. Edward M. Raymond, cashier, and Joseph Campbell, a director of the bank, and Joseph F. Raymond, a brother of the president and cashier of the bank. They are each charged individually with misappropriating the funds of the bank and there is also a general charge of conspiracy against the four. The case of Edward Raymond will be called first on Monbay.

Will Escape Prosecution.

Williamsport Sun: Engineer Vallely and Conductor Allen, the two men whom the coroner's jury held responsible for the disastrous freight wreck on the Fall Brook railroad at Campbell's Rocks on Saturday last, resulting in the death of Fireman McQuaid, will probably not be criminally prosecuted. In a number of instances in this state where criminal action has been brought against trainmen for a similar offense it has been discovered that the jury either has ignored the bill or acquitted the defendant.

The men have been discharged by the company and are at Corning. It is rumored that Mrs. McQuaid, mother of the deceased fireman will bring an action for damages against the Fall Brook company.

A tired stomach is very much like a sprained ankle. If you suffer from any of the symptoms of dyspepsia, your stomach is tired. It needs a crutch. We must relieve it of all work for a time, or until it is restored to its natural strength. To do this successfully, we must use a food which is already digested outside of the body, and which will aid the digestion of other foods that may be taken with it. Such a product is the Shakers Digestive Cordial.

The Shakers have utilized the digestive principles present in plants for the manufacture of this article, and its success has been truly phenomenal. You can try it for the nominal sum of 10 cents, as sample bottles are sold by all druggists at this price.

Diphtheria
✳ Less Fatal.

If the patient's strength can be maintained, and the great vital centres of the body "kept up" to the performance of their natural functions, they will thus dispel the disease germs that impregnate the entire body, and if sufficient vitality is experienced, the fatality of this dreaded disease is lessened a hundred-fold.

Bovinine

that greatest raw food, is a wonderful creator of new flesh and nerve tissue, is indispensible in the treatment of this malady as it gives strength to the patient with the least effort on the part of the digestive organs, and in addition, being itself a germicide, it antidotes the existing microbes of the disease. The ease with which it can be taken when the lesions of the throat preclude the use of other foods, makes it an additional necessity for the sufferer's recovery.

She Wore Bloomers.

Beaver Falls, Pa., Nov. 22.—Last night the members of the choir of St. Mary's Episcopal church gave an Old Folks concert in St. Mary's hall, a building adjoining the church. The audience and the singers were astonished at the appearance of the wife of one of the leading merchants of the town in a complete bloomer costume. Her trousers which reached to the knee, were made of a georgeous pattern of Indian silk. A light jacket, standing collar, a brilliant necktie, silk hat, kid gloves and a cane completed this startling outfit.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.

TWO FIRES AT LOCK HAVEN.

One Occurred at Noon Yesterday and the Other Last Night.

Lock Haven had two fires on Thursday. The first occurred about noon, and was in a room on the second floor of the residence of J. W. Peoples, on West Main street. The damage was slight.

At 11 o'clock last night there was a blaze in the frame warehouse in the rear of the Racket store. The place was used as a packing room and warehouse and the fire is supposed to have originated in the excelsior. The flames had gained considerable headway before they were discovered, but the fire department responded quickly and in half an hour had the blaze under control. The building was badly damaged. It was situated in the midst of a number of frame structures at a point where a fire was hard to handle.

A Fine Lecture.

The illustrated lecture in the Presbyterian Chapel on Friday evening by Dr. F. J. Stanley was without doubt one of the nest exhibitions ever produced in Bellefonte. Dr. Sranley used as his subject "The Japanese and their customs." His thorough knowledge of the ways of this race of people and his exceptionally brilliant power of speech made the lecture all the more interesting. His different views were good and well explained. Dr. Stanley has certainly made a name for himself in Bellefonte and no matter when he may again return he will surely be greeted by a large audience. In behalf of the people of our city the DAILY NEWS bids him welcome in advance for any time he may return. He has greatly pleased his audiences while here and he is one of the few lecturers that it is pleasant to hear throughout the entire lecture.

Died at Dunnstown.

Mrs. Eva Eliza McCloskey, widow of the late Nathan McCloskey, died in Dunnstown last evening, aged 72 years. The deceased had been afflicted with rheumatism for several months, and a week ago yesterday she was stricken with paralysis. This was followed by a second stroke, which caused death. Mrs. McCloskey is survived by one son, W. J. S. McCloskey, of Ronceverte, W. Va., and three daughters, Mrs. R. D. Myers, of Dunnstown, Mrs. G. A Smith, of Sinnemahoning and Mrs. Samuel Nelson, of Ronceverte. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Services will be conducted in the church at Dunnstown.—Lock Haven Democrat.

A Word With Parents.

Just a word with parents and citizens generally. Visit our schools oftener. Watch your children at the work of forming their characters. Give to teachers and scholars the stimulus and encouragement of your frequent presence and, if need be, even your criticism if necessary. Do not be satisfied by thinking you have got your children out of the way when they are inside the schoolrooms. Go and see them there. Take the same interest in their class work you do in their home study. Your visits will benefit yourselves, your children and their instructors.—Philipsburg Journal.

They Banquetted.

Williamsport, Pa., Nov. 21.—General Superintendent Robert Neilson, of the Philadelphia and Erie and Northern Central divisions of the Pennsylvania railroad dined Supt. G. W. Creghton, of Harrisburg, to-night. There were present a score or more of prominent railroad men, including the superintendents of all the division between Baltimore and Canandaigue and Erie.

F. Hobkinson Smith's new novel, "Tom Grogan," will begin in the Christmas number of The Century. The labor problem enters into it, and in its plot Mr. Smith is said to have utilized some of his experiences as a builder. C. S. Reinhart furnishes the illustrations.

Ruyard Kipling's famous Jungle Stories had their origin in the suggestion of the editor of St. Nicholas that he try his hand at writing stories for the young readers of that magazine. This Mr. Kipling was the more ready to do as he said he had "grown up on St. Nicholas." He will write for it during the coming year—in a new vein; the Jungle Stories are finished.

HANGED WHILE SINGING.

Atrocious Negro Murderers Die in an Ecstacy of Religion.

Warrenton, Ga., Nov. 22.—Florence English, a boy 20 years of age, and Amanda Cody, both colored, were executed here to-day amid exciting scenes, for the atrocious murder of the latter's husband. They died in the ecstacy of religious enthusiasm.

A trio of colored ministers held a prayer meeting in the corridor of the jail during the early morning. The prisoners now and then mingled their supplications with the preachers, producing intense excitement. The culprits stood in the midst of the visitors, swaying their bodies to and fro, singing plaintive melodies characteristic of the black race.

Shortly before noon the prisoners were marched from their cells to the scaffold. As they stepped on the platform, both commenced singing an old negro camp meeting melody: "We'll Soon Be On the Way to Heaven." While their hands and feet were being pinioned, the murderers still continued the hymn. They refused to make a statement. The black caps were then drawn over their faces, the hymn still being sung with renewed vigor

When the trap was sprung they were still singing.

A Hotel Gutted by Fire.

Williamsport, Pa., Nov. 21.—About 4.30 o'clock this morning the Lycoming house was gutted by fire and the inmates had a narrow escape from suffocation. The proprietor, John C. English, was aroused from sleep by a pet terrier jumping on the bed and pawing his face. The smoke and heat became so intense the occupants barely escaped in their night clothes. Mrs English was overcome and had to be carried to an adjoining hotel, where she soon recovered. Mr. English returned to rescue the dog and had to be taken from the second story window. The family was unable to save anything. After three hours hard work the fire was extinguished by the department. The loss is covered by insurance. The fire was undoubtedly of incendiary origin, as it started in an out kitchen which had been used as a store room.

Small Odds on Yale.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 20.—A repor that Cross, of the Yale team, is seriously ill, is wholly without foundation. Coach Hartwell said this evening that Cross and Hazen had contracted slight colds from recent exposure, resulting in sore throats, but they would be entirely well in a day or two. The team will be in splendid condition for Saturdry's game with Princeton, every man feeling first rate. To-morrow will be the last day of practice and the team will rest on Friday.

There is increasing confidence here that Yale will win by a small margin, and Yale, men are willing to give odds of 6 to 5 and 5 to 4 on the result of the game. Heffelfinger, '91, is here coaching, and W. Rhodes, Hartwell and Hinkey are keeping the team hard at work practicing signals and taking their last instructions for the great contest Saturday.

Princeton, N. J., Nov. 20.—The Princeton management to-day permitted the undergraduates to witness the foot ball practice. It was a game between the varsity and a scrub of famous coachers. The line as it played to-day was simply impregnable to such veteran backs as King Poe and and Burt. The defensive playing put up by the 'varsity backs was of the kind that brought joy to the hearts of those who intend to back the team. Every move was like clockwork. The game lasted 30 minutes, during which time the 'varsity scored 22 points to the scrubs' 0.

Oleomargarine Seized,

Philadelphia, Nov.—Officers of the seized 7,300 pounds of oleomargarine at the Union markrt. It is marked "B," and is supposed to have come from Chicago, but no one can be found who claims possession. If the owner should be found he will be prosecuted by the department.

The department has also been investigating certain articles found in groceries of this city and other places. It appears that what is sold as maple syrup is made of 3-cent sugar. Buckweeat packages have also been analyzed and found to be made solely from coarse wheat flour. Pepper, mustard and cider vinegar are amoung other articles adulterated, but sold as the pure material.

The Dynamite Went Up.

Wellsboro, Pa., Nov. 20.—F. T Johnson a prominent business man of this place, and his brother-in-law, Mr. Raymond, were out this afternoon on Johnson's farm near here, engaged in blowing out stumps of trees with dynamite. They went into a shanty to warm some of the cartridges over a stove and a terrific explosion followed. The building was blown to atoms and the men were hurled quite a distance. Johnson's left arm was blown off at the elbow and his face, neck and head were terribly cut and burned. Mr. Raymond was made totally blind and was badly cut and bruised. It is thought that both will die.

Different.

"I think it a shame for Mr. Paynter to talk shop as he does. I overheard him say to Mrs. Blumer that he thought he had the prettiest, strongest, most graceful and best proportioned model in the country. He even began to describe her frame when I came away. It must be an awful life to lead—posing far artists—but what astonished me was that Sallie Blumer should listen to him."

"But, my dear Mrs. Primpter, Mr. Paynter was not describing the model that poses for him."

"What was he describing then?"

Pastor Foster's Fight.

Beaver Falls, Pa., Nov. 20.—The session of the Reformed Presbyterian church held last night a stormy meeting, which was a continuation of the war between Rev. D. Foster and some of the members of the congregation. Applications were filed for letters of dismissal by 38 members of the session. Mr. Foster, who acted a moderator, ruled that these men had no right to grant themselves such letters, and when Clerk R. M. Downie attempted to put the motions Mr. Foster pounded the table so furiously as to down the clerk's voice. He thumped the table until he broke a large lamp and the oil streamed over the papers.

Mr Downie made an impressive speech full of the most scathing denunciation of his pastor. These proceedings were very dramatically interrupted several times by the minister saying, "Let us pray." In a full of the proceedings Mr. Foster secured some of the papers from the clerk and attempted to leave the room with them. Mr Downie placed his back against the door and demanded the papers, and for a few minutes it looked as though a general fight would ensue, but that was averted. When the minister finally left the room he was told he would be arrested and the papers secured by legal process.

A Scotch Answer.

It was in one of the cozy villages of bonny Scotland, where gossip is the chief barter and church the chief duty of every "mon" and all the "weemin." For once gossip and church were traveling the same way, for Dougeld McSorlie, the minister, had suddenly grown unpopular and the numbers of his congregation were steadily diminishing.

No one knew better than he that something must be done, so he concluded to do a little house-to-house missionary work and thus arouse more interest in church affairs.

But his enthusiasm was short lived. The first man he accosted was Tonald Campbell, a sturdy old Scot of well-known free-thinking tendencies.

"Tonald," began the minister, "for why were ye no't at the kirk last Sawbath?"

"I was at Mr. McShouter's kirk, meenister."

This was hardly the reply that was expected, but the minister continued with added gravity: "I dinna like ye rinnig' about the strange kirks i' this way. I'm pairfeckly sure ye yersei' widna like yer ain sheep strayin' awa' inta strange pastures."

Toxald cast a sidelong glance at his critic. "I widna care a grain, meenister, gin it was better gress,"—Boston Budget.

A WANDERER RETURNS

A Fayette County Youth Comes Home After Many Years.

Uniontown, Pa., Nov. 21.—After seven years' wandering, during which he traveled over a large part of the country, John McWhirter arrived at his home in Normalville yesterday. His homecoming was as mysterious and unexpected as his disappearance. Seven years ago McWhirter, then a youth of 9 years, walked out of his home one evening. At first it was thought he had wandered off into the woods and got lost, and a search was instituted, which was kept up for weeks. According to his story he went to Connellsville and joined a circus which carried him through the West. He was stranded in a little town in Nebraska. He worked his way South as far as Baton Rouge, La., and in 1889 he landed in New Orleans, where he saw the Sullivan-Kilrain fight. Soon after he came North again, and has since been living with a farmer in Butler-county. During all the years he was away he never sent any word home to tell his family he was alive.

These Women Want to Vote.

Lancaster, Pa., Nov. 21.—The Woman Suffrage Association of Pennsylvania began its twenty-seventh annual convention here this morning. The convention was called to order by the president, Mrs. Lucretia L. Blankenburg, of Philadelphia.

The report of the treasurer, Annie Heacock, of Wyncote, showed receipts, $458; expenditures, $285; balance, $173.

The report of the president dwelt at length on the successful efforts of the society in securing enactment of a law regarding the custody of minor children, giving the mother equal authority with the father. The report of Mary B. Luckie, of Chester, the corresponding secretary, indicated increased interest in the suffrage movement in the state.

Mary T. Ganthrop, of Swathmore, recording secretary, resigned, owing to ill health.

After the appointment of committees the convention adjourned until afternoon.

Worth Fighting For.

Samuel F. McCloskey, Curwensville's veteran land surveyor, and J. H. Wetzel, a Bellefonte surveyor, were in town Monday on business connected with the rather famous Cross land suit, which has been tried in court three times and now is to be argued to-morrow before the state board of properties at Haarisburg. The property in question is 200 acres of very rich iron ore land at Gatesburg, Centre county, and the litigants are A. V. Hoyt, G. H. Ashman and others vs. T. J. Gates, of Tyrone and Lyon Shorb and Co.. of Pittsburg. The plaintiffs have won the case twice out of three times. The property is estimated to be worth a half million of dollars. The vein of iron ore covers the entire tract and is eighty feet thick.—Philipsburg Ledger.

Masonic University.

The Lock Haven Democrat says: The Masons of Western Pennsylvania propose to raise $800,000 to build and equip a Masonic university in Beaver, by asking every Mason in the country to subscribe ten dollars. It is expected that most Masons would send their sons to the university, while the children of dead Masons who could not afford to pay, would be educated in it free of charge. Beaver is said to be the centre of the Masonic population of the United States, and the Masons of the place say they will give the proposed institution a sight of eight acres.

Accidents on the Road.

Bradford, Pa., Nov. 21.—An Italian laborer, Frank Elmore, was run down by the 10.10 a. m. Erie train a short distance below Limestone this morning and was instantly killed.

John Steele. of Brockwayville, a freight brakeman, slipped from the tender of an engine at Falls Creek to-day and fell on the track. His legs were cut off below the knee and he died under the surgeons knife a few hours later. He was aged 31 years and leaves a wife and three children.

A Worthy Class.

Mrs. Hoshour's Class of the Lutheran Sunday School held an oyster supper at the Hoshour home on Thursday evening the proceeds being for the benefit of the church. The supper was well attended and during the entire evening a large crowd was present. Every body seemed to have a good time and it was the verdict of all that this class was deserving of much praise for its efforts to help the church.

Must be a Printer.

A deaf and dumb Swede enroute to Sweden lunched at a down town restaurant last week, and borrowed a pencil, which he did not return. Arriving at Tyrone he discovered his mistake and immediately addressed a letter to a brother Swede at the Junction, stating the case and enclosing ten cents, which was duly presented to the lender on Saturday night.—Clearfield Journal.

Home Missions.

To the people of Bellefonte we want to just suggest a thought which may probably be of some benefit to you in the future. Winter is now at hand and there are many poor creatures out of employment. A man must live. He cannot live without something to eat. He cannot secure food without money; and he cannot secure money without employment. When some poor half-starved man comes to your back door and asks for something to eat, don't refuse his request and slam the door in his face and then resume packing a box of clothing to send across the sea. Think perhaps your own boy might be sometime placed in the same position. Would you want him treated the way you have treated tramps? Above all things keep it in mind that simply because a man is dressed in rags, that he is a worthless scamp. There are to-day in the United States more honest hearts covered with ragged jackets, than there are clean souls clothed in fine linen. Of course vagrancy should not be encouraged, but take care of the destitute at your own door before you commence to alleviate suffering several thousand miles away.

These Were Bold Burglars.

Chester, Pa., Nov. 20.—Bold burglars secured $480 at the house of Mrs. J. Alfreds, No. 1031 Hyatt street, last night, cholroformed the sleeping woman. Entrance was gained through a cellar window and the burglars no doubt knew where to find the money, for they crept to Mrs. Alfred's apartment, where, after drugging her, they extracted the cash from beneath the pillow upon which her head was resting.

Mrs. Alfreds was aroused this morning by a neighbor and is now under a doctor's care from the effects of the drug. The money was the proceeds of a sale of property, and the police think there are suspicious facts connected with the case. Mr. Alfreds is absent in Massachusetts and the other occupants of the house were a woman and two children.

New Lodge Instituted.

Philadelphia, Nov. 22.—At the Masonic temple, Broad and Filbert streets, this afternoon, a new lodge was instituted under the name of University lodge No. 610, Free and Accepted Masons, by R. W. Grand Master Matthias W. Henderson, assisted by R. W. Deputy Grand Master Wm. J. Kelley, R. W. S. Grand Warden Hon. Henry J. Williams; R. W. J. Grand Warden George E. Wagner, R. W. Grand Secretary Michael W. Nesbit and R. W. Grand Treasurer Thomas Patton, the other officers of the grand lodge of Pennsylvania. It was more than an ordinary occasion for reason that the lodge starts out under such favorable auspices, numbering sixty-five charter or warrant members, the largest number known for many years. The ceremonies of the constitution were deeply impressive and interesting and were witnessed by a large number of Masons, among whom were many distinguished members of the fraternity. The following were installed as officers of the new lodge: W. M., Prof. Edgar R. Smith; S. W., Geo. W. Kendrick; J. W. S., Murdock Kendrick; lecturer, George Hall, M. D.; secretary, Forest Perry.

At the conclusion of the ceremonies a banquet followed and in the evening University lodge held its first stated meeting.

Canned Goods.

The day is gone when it pays the housewife to wear out her health and temper canning fruit and vegetables. These things are now done most economically by the modern American plan on a mammoth scale. The result is that the finest canned goods in the world are sold at such prices as make it impossible for any lady customers to make it profitable to waste their time canning fruit and vegetables. You can buy tomatoes for instance for a few cents a price less than the coal would cost for anyone who would prepare them at home, almost less than the empty cans would cost. The EUREKA GROCERY have a fine stock on hand and will in a few days receive a large shipment of them. Also all kinds of Groceries. Call and see their goods and price them.

WHEN stately chrysanthemums are in their prime, Christmas thoughts are in the air; and the happy combination of both in Demorest's Magazine for December makes it an ideal Christmas number. Page after page of handsome illustrations depict various prases of Christmas pleasures, and a timely article on "The Infant Christ in Legend and Art," embellished with numerous and beautiful reproductions of the Madonnas by modern painters, give some curious legends about the Christ-child, and similar legends about a yergin-born savior that exists in all the religions of the East. There is a superbly illustrated paper on the Atlanta Exposition stories by Gilbert Parker and Joseph Hatton are among the fiction. There are Christmas poems, and lots of suggestions about Christmas gifts and entertainments, and everyone of the departments is replete with timely and valuable information. In addition to all this, there is the beautifu picture of "Chrysanthemums," a perfect reproduction of the water-color by the eminent artist Paul de Lonpre which is given as a Chriatmas Supplement. Every one who possesses the lovely "Yard of Pansies" and "Yard of Roses" needs this to complete a trio of pictures that cannot be surpassed for decorative effect, and anyone may obtain it, also a December number of Demorest's by cutting out this notice and sending it, with twenty-cents in stamps, to the address below. The original painting of "Chrysanthemums," which is valued at $1,000, is to be given to the person who, previous to April 1, 1996, obtains for Demorest's Magazine the greatest number of subscribers. This is an unprecedented offer, full particulars of which are given in the december number. Demorest's is published for $2 a year, by the Democrest Publishing Company, 110 Fifth Avenue, New York.

Something Fine,

Fisher's funny farce comedy, "A Cold Day," don't miss seeing it. It is now in its ninth season, but don't come round here every year. It has been some time since we have seen it, but "A Cold Day" is always welcome, and the performances of P.D.Fisher as "Abe" and Dick Morosco as "Jake" cannot easily be forgotten. "A Cold Day" always has pretty dancing, and popular songs. This furiously funny attraction will be at Garman's opera house on Thursday evening, Nov. 28th. Secure your seats at once.

When the Chill Mists of the Morning

Hang like a pall over the surface of the earth, it will be well for you before venturing into the raw vaporous air, charged, perhaps, with the seeds of malaria or provocative of rheumatic twinges, to take a wineglassful of Hostetter's stomach Bitters and thus shield yourself from atmospheric influences threatening to health. If you happen to get snowed, sleeted or rained upon, use the same preventive, and avoid the rheumatism or a dangerous cold. The agreeable warmth infused into the circulation by this genial stomachic, it invigorating and regulating properties commend it to all appreciative of the fact that prevention is better than cure. Use the Bitters for dyspepsia, billiousness, neverousness and kidney troubles sick headache and debility.

—By an act passed by the last Legislature and approved the 18th day of June, 1895, it is made unlawful for any one, but near adult relatives, to attend the funeral of any person who has died of cholera, small pox, yellow fever, typhus fever, diphtheria, diphtheric croup, membranous croup or leprosy. In addition to the immediate adult relatives of the deceased, a sufficient number of pall bearers may be in attendance.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From our Regular Correspondent.

Washington, Nov. 27th, 1895.

Hon. Thomas B. Reed knows from experience that it is best to make no premature announcement concerning the committee assignment of members of the House. While it is certain that Mr. Reed will have more trouble in properly placing the new members, and will have to rely largely upon the advice of others, as many of them are entirely unknown to him. However, he is a rare hand at correctly sizing a man up after talking with him, and he will meet all of the republican members before he takes his seat as Speaker.

It is not necessary to do more than mention the fact that less then fifty senators and representatives have yet arrived in Washington to make it plain that the numerous stories sent out purporting to tell what the republicans are going to do are merely guesses founded upon the opinions of invividuals. Whether the republicans will attempt to recognize the Senate is an open question and will remain such until a caucus considers the matter and decides what shall be done. It may not be necessary for the republicans of the House to hold a caucus to map out a policy, but it would be surprising if they did, as the leaders of the party are especially desirous that whatever is done shall be in the line of parly policy and that there shall be no bushwhacking on the part of those who are more intent upon achieving prrsonal notoriety by making sensational speeches than of advancing the welfare of the party as a whole.

There are several reasons—all good—why the talk, which has been indulged in by cuckoos, about Mr. Cleveland punishing ex-Speaker Crisp for his silver views by having the democratic nomination for Speaker of the House and the consequent leadership of the democrats in that body given to some cuckoo instead of Mr. Crisp, has been amusing to those who know the financial status of a majority of the democratic members of the House. It is only necessary to mention one of these reasons a majority of the democratic members hold precisely the same views that Mr Crisp does, or at least they did when last heard from by their constituents. Of course it is possible that the administration can control some of these votes by a judicious use of patronage, but it is not at probable that it will be sure to go into a contest of that sort. It might end not only with the nomination of Crisp by the democratic caucus but gall might be added to the bitterness by the adoption of a silver resolution. That Mr. Cleveland would like, if he had the power, to go into the wholesale punishment of those democrats who do not agree with him is doubtless true, but his time will be so fully taken up with dodging the missiles shied at his head from both Senate and House that he will have no time to devote to punishing others.

It is seldom that such absolute indifference is shown by senators and representatives a week before the meeting of Congress as to what recommendations the President's Message may contain as exists among those now in Washington. This indifference is not confined to either party. Everybody seems to have arrived at the conclusion that it makes no difference what Mr. Cleveland may say or leave unsaid; that it is the wisdom of the republicans in Congress that must be depended upon and not Mr. Cleveland's Message.

Some of the candidates for the minor House offices are trying to turn it into a sectional contest—this office for the South, that for the West, the other for the East, etc., but it is not probable that the caucus will make its selections upon that basis. There has been too much sectional politics in this country. The republican party has always proclaimed itself a national party, even when one section was solidly arrayed against it, and it is not likely to endorse sectionalism in any form now.

In Quarantine.

There are but few persons, it seems, that understand what it means to quarantine a house when there is a centagious disease within. When the board of health quarantines a house, it closes the house to the world, as far as anybody going in or out is concerned. Even letters dare not be taken in or out. This course of procedure is absolutely necessary in order to protect the other citizens of the town.

About two-thirds of the people seem to pay no attention to the fact that a house is quarantined and try to get in and see the sick people. This often causes great annoyance to the nurses and the family where the sickness may be, as they don't like to refuse admittance to their intimate friends although they are compelled to according to the health laws. Everybody should bear this in mind and not try to get into places that are under quarantine.

—The mail carriers at Tyrone have received their new gray uniforms.

Consumption kills more people than rifle balls. It is more deadly than any of the much dreaded epidemics. Fully one-sixth of all the deaths in America are caused by consumption. It is a stealthy, gradual, slow disease. It penetrates the whole body. It is in every drop of blood. It seems to work only at the lungs, but the terrible drain and waste go on all over the body. The only way to get rid of consumption is to work on the blood, make it pure, rich and wholesome, build up the wasting tissues, put the body into condition for a fight with the dread disease. The cure of consumption is a fight—a fight between sound tissues and the encroaching germs of disease.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery fights on the right side. It drives the germs back, forces them out of the body. It will cure 98 per cent. of all cases of consumption if it is taken during the early stages of the disease. Its first action is to put the stomach, bowels, liver and kidneys into good working order. That makes digestion good and assimilation quick and thorough. It makes sound healthy flesh. That is half the battle. That makes the "Discovery" good for those who have not consumption, but who are lighter and less robust than they ought to be.

A large book of 160 pages, telling all about this wonderful medicine, will be mailed free on receipt of this notice and 6 cents to cover postage by WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, No. 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

CAUTION.—Buy of reliable dealers. With any others, something else that pays them better will probably be urged as "just as good."

Beneath His Notice.

Owing to an uncalled for attack on the DAILY NEWS and the Keystone Gazette several months ago by C. M. Thompson, manager of the State College foot ball team, in which that worthy (?) individual said the Bellefonte papers advertising State College events didn't amount to a d—n, the matter was taken up by the two above named papers and resented. Mr. Thompson, however, was the only person mentioned, as the voice of the students in general was one of regret that Mr. Thompson had acted so unwisely. At the time we thought that what he had said was only done in a moment of anger, but this seems not to be the case. Notwithstanding this fact, only a few days ago a notice of the Thanksgiving assembly was sent to the DAILY NEWS for publication from State College. It was published as there were on the committee students, who are gentlemen. In return for this free advertising and hundreds of other instances when different social and athletic events were generously advertised in the Bellefonte newspapers, we received the following compliment in the editorial columns of the State College Free Lance of November:—

"The recent newspaper attack upon Mr. C. M. Thompson, manager of our foot ball team, were most abusive and we feel certain from the character of the articles that the men who wrote them are beneath the notice of Mr. Thompson.

It is always a wise thing to keep on friendly terms with newspaper men; but any man is justified in resenting imposition and insolence, and this Mr. Thompson did effectually."

We herewith extend our many thanks for this flattering send-off. It is about as small in tenor as the ways of the writer. Since the actions of Mr. Thompson were resented by the leading newspapers all over the State, it can easily be seen that he was wrong; and if abusive, there were reasons for being so. Since the students have taken up this matter and are defending Mr. Thompson, then no doubt they do not care to have any of the Bellefonte people attend their different events. For Mr. Thompson has already said Bellefonte people are "nothing but a set of d—n muckers; and gentlemen? would not want to associate with muckers. We consider the ways of this worthy manager and the editors of the Free Lance so low that it would be impossible to be beneath them.

Look Out for Kodaks.

Hereafter it might be well for railroaders who have been addicted to the drink habit, both on and off duty, to take the innocent-looking little kodak into their calculations before lining up at the bar. It was just brought about the suspension of three employes of the Pittsburg and Western, who like a good many fellow employes, have been in the habit of leaving their trains for a few minutes at Mahoningtown and taking a "hummer" or two in a near by saloon, says the Lock Haven Democrat. The superintendent had suspected the men for some time, but had not been able to trip them up, until the kodak was brought into play. Saturday the three worthies above mentioned were requested to appear before the "super." When they reached his office he asked them how they liked the beer they had bought at the saloon at the same time naming the day. Each of the men denied in the most positive manner that he had been in the saloon at all on the day in question. The superintendent did not talk long to them, but he drew from his pocket a photograph of the three men as it had been taken with a kodak, and showed them just in the act of drinking. They did not have a word to say, but went home the thirty days' suspension sentence imposed.

LEASED A NEW LINE.

Bellefonte Central Telephone Circuit Changed Hands.

The Central Pennsylvania Telephone and Supply company which has headquarters at Bellefonte has leased the telephone line of the Bellefonte Central Railroad Company with the intention of running a toll line out of it. About December 1st. pay stations will be established at Hunter's Park, Waddles, Scotia and Stormstown. All communications to and from points on the line will be charged a nominal rate. These stations will be fully equipped with a metalic circuit and long-distances telephones.

This is a good move in the right direction and will be a great convenience to everybody as under the new system it will be possible to instantly communicate with any of the above named places. Superintendent Malin ably assisted by James Woomer are doing everything in their power to give the people the best of service and the good results already obtained are the best testimonials of their support. The Exchange at Bellefonte is in the hands of competent and obliging operators and both night and day the wires are open for the benefit of the many subscribers. No better telephone service can be found in the state and the large number of 'phones in use in this district shows that the people appreciate the efforts of the officers.

Foot-Ball Games Pay.

New York, Nov. 26.—Messrs. H. S. Van Duzer and Julian W. Curtis of the committee in charge of Saturday's football game between Yale and Princeton elevens said to-day that it is impossible to tell yet what the exact receipts of the game were, but added they would foot up about $40,000 and possibly a little over that sum. Each college, it was said, would receive in the neighborhood of $14,000 for its share of the gate receipts. The total receipts last year were $39,000.

The Log Rolled and His Gun Went Off.

Uniontown, Pa., Nov. 26.—Tax Collector J. G. Sisler took his gun with him, when he started into Dunbar township yesterday to collect. While seated on a log eating lunceon the log rolled, and both loads of the gun were discharged into his left hand. He was faint from loss of blood before he could reach the nearest house.

Harper's Bazaar

IN 1896

The twenty-ninth year of Harper's Bazaar, beginning in January, 1896, finds it maintaining its deserved reputation both as a Fashion Journal and a weekly periodical for home reading.

Every week the Bazaar presents beautiful toilettes for various occasions. Sandoz, Baude, and Chaplus illustrate and engrave the newest designs from the finest models in Paris and Berlin. New York Fashions epitomizes current styles in New York. A fortnightly pattern-sheet supplyment with diagrams and directions enables women to cut and make their own gowns, and is of great value to the professional modiste as well as to the amateur dress-maker. Children's Clothing receives constant attention. Fashions for men are described in full detail by a man about-town. Our Paris Letter, by Katherine De Forrest, is a sprightly weekly recital of fashion gossip, and social doings in Paris, given by a clever woman in an entertaining way.

Both the serials for 1895 are the work of American women. "Mrs. Gerald," by Maria Louise Pool, is a striking story of New England life. Mary E Wilkins, in "Jerome, a Poor Man," discusses the always interesting problems of the relation between labor and capital. Short stories will be written by the best authors.

Special departments. Music. The Outdoor woman, Personals, What we Are Doing, Women and Men, report and discuss themes of immediate interest.

Answers to Correspondents. Questions receive the personal attention of the editor and are answered at the earliest possible date after their receipt.

The Volumes of the Bazaar begin with the first Number for January of each year. When no time is mentioned, subscriptions will begin with the number current at the time of receipt of order.

Remittances should be made by Post-office Money Order or Draft, to avoid chance of loss.

DENOUNCED A YOUNG WOMAN.

Rev. Dr. J. B. Craw, of Camden is Opposed to Dancing.

Camden, N. J., Nov. 24.—Some of te members of the First Methodist Episcopal church are deeply grieved over what they say was an uncalled for denouncement of an estimable young woman by Rev. J. B. Graw, pastor of the church. The young woman's offense consisted of teaching her sister and several of her girl friends the art of dancing.

Miss Carrie Mead, is a member of the Broadway Methodist Episcopal church. A few weeks ago her sister Edna, a girl of 15-years, asked Miss Carrie to teach her and one or two of her young friends to dance. Miss Mead consented and the dancing lessons began. Last Sunday night Miss Mead, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs, Murray, the parents of one of the young girls she was teaching, to the church and had the misfortune of hearing herself denounced in defaming language. It was one of a course of sermons directed against the theatre and dancing and other terrible evils.

Rev. Dr. Graw said he had heard of a young lady who had formed a dancing class and was taking the pure and innocent children of the Sunday school and teaching them the terrible thing. He liken ed such a young lady to the tiger, with his soft smooth fur, and its deadly claws lark. ing beneath. Continuing this he said: "If that young lady is in the congregation all I have to say is that she is a fool."

Miss Mead was so astonished that she could scarcely speak after the meeting, but since then her brother, Alfred Mead has taken the matter up and says Dr. Graw has not head the last of it by any means. The preacher said he had no apology to make. At a public meeting in Camden on Thursday night last Dr. Graw took occasion to speak of the incident. He said he had been called upon and told that he had made an error. 'But so long as I live,' he said, "I shall preach the truth.

Reports of the Sweat Shop Evil.

Harrisburg, Nov. 24.—Four of the deputy factory inspectors engaged in the inspection of the sweat shop evil in Philadelphia have submitted a joint report to Chief Inspector Campbell. They state that work was commenced in July in the Second police district, where most of the sweaters are foreigners. They found the surroundings of the work rooms foul and in every way unhealthy. Three hundred places were visited in this district and 90 per cent. were found in dwellings and tenement houses, in violation of law. About the same conditions were found in the Third district, where 220 places were visted. The inspectors deem it inexpedient to enforce the law before giving the sweaters an opportunity to learn its provisions and comply with them.

Crushed to Death.

Pittsburg, Nov. 25.—This afternoon a heavy casting in Scaif's foundry, Twenty-eighth and Smallman street toppled over and crushed Frank Berry, a workman, to the floor. Berry was dead when the casting was removed, having been literally mashed flat.

General Washington's Other Name.

A large company of persons was startled recently by the inquiry for General Washington's other name. A wag asked the question but in a manner that betrayed no humorous intent. It was evident that the company had never heard the Father of his Country had had evre assumed an alias. the wag was compelled to tell his fellow guest that our first President's other name was "George." Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is the name of the world renowned remedy for all blood disorders liver complaints, and consumption, (to lung scrofula) its early stages. tI has no other name and no rival, because its the only medicine for these maladies so certain in curative egecet that it can be guarnted to cure or money returned.

He Fixed Her Wheel.

Mrs. Hamburger, of Jersey Shore, was in this city a few days ago and made a number of purchases. Late in the afternoon she started for home in her buggy. When near Jersey Shore, a man stepped to the side of the buggy and informed her that one of the wheels of her vehicle was loose, and stated that if she would wait, he would tighten it for her. Mrs. Hamburger readily gave her consent, and the man went behind the buggy. In a few minutes he reported that it was all right. The lady drove to her home, but when she went to the rear of her buggy she found that her packages were all gone. Mrs. Hamburger will keep a more watchful eye on men who offer their service when she is on the road hereafter.—Lock Haven Democrat.

Simply Marvelous

Intense Suffering of a Young Girl Ended

White Swelling Cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"Gentlemen—Urged by the feeling that some parent might have attention directed to Hood's Sarsaparilla through my statements, as mine was through that Mr. Jno. L. McMurray of Ravenswood, W. Va., I give the particulars of my daughter Emma's suffering and cure. In December, 1886, when four years old, she injured her right knee by a fall. The injury culminated in white swelling. The limb commenced to contract, and to enable her to get around I made her a Pair of Crutches.

While using these she had a second fall, the knee grew worse and the limb contracted. The following August the doctors decided to bandage the leg. They pulled the knee-joint apart by main strength and put it in a plaster bandage.

"During the six months the use of the plaster-of-paris bandage was continued, it was renewed three or four times. The limb grew worse instead of better. All sorts of appliances and bandages were resorted to, but there was no improvement, the disease continued its inroads.

Five Abscesses

formed on the limb. We took her to a prominent hospital. The doctor said it would be necessary to open the leg and scrape the bone, and perhaps finally to Amputate the Limb.

She had wasted away to a mere shadow and as I didn't believe she could survive the operation, I made up my mind she might as well die with two legs as one.

"Just at this time, I happened to read a testimonial from West Virginia describing a case so similar to my child's, and in which Hood's Sarsaparilla had effected a cure, and I immediately decided to give that medicine a trial. It took hold

From the First.

Before she had taken two bottles a core or piece of bone came out of one of the abscesses near the ankle. To come to the point, three bottles of Hood Sarsaparilla cured Emma completely. Readers of this can imagine my esteem for Hood's Sarsaparilla better than I can express it. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a family medicine with us. We warmly recommend it to everybody." WILLIAM H. PEDRICK, 1414 South Seventeenth St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Who Owns the Oleo.

Scranton Pa. Nov. 24.—State Secretary of Agriculture Edge has given notice to United States Internal Revenue Collector Grant Herring whose office is in this city, that if he sells at public sale as he proposes to do a large quantity of oleomargarine now in his possession he will be prosecuted according to law. A short while ago revenue officers found 150 tubs of oleomargarine in the cellar of a house adjoining the creamery of Daniel Kline, in Bradford county, and as they did not bear the necessary government stamps, marks and brands required by law the stuff was confiscated. Then Collector Herring caused the arrest of Kline and of Russell Uhl, of Wilkesbarre, as an accomplice, and they are under bail. In the meantime, in accordance with the revised statutes of the United States, Collector Herring has advertised the oleomargarine for sale. Notice of the sale reached Secretary Edge, who promptly interferred. A well known lawyer says that the state and national laws clash on this point, and there is sure to be a conflict of authority.

Big Fire at Carbondale.

Scranton, Pa., Nov, 24.—At 8 o'clock to-night the transfer coal pockets of the Delaware and Hudson Canal company in Carbondale, a structure 400 feet long, were found to be on fire and the flames resisted the utmost efforts of the firemen. In less than two hours they were destroyed, together with about twenty-five gondola cars and an immense mass of coal. The loss is estimated at $30,000, but the annoyance and trouble that will be caused by the destruction of the pockets is incalculable.

It will take a month to restore them, during which 100 men will be out of employment. In the meantime some other method will have to be devised to transfer the coal from small gravity mine cars to gondolas, during the devising of which there will be a temporary suspension at six mines employing several thousand men. The sheet iron roof of the pockets fell across the tracks of the Delaware and Hudson main line and will delay all traffic on the road for several hours to-morrow

CORNELL EXPECTS TO WIN.

The Ithaca Team on the Way to Philadelphia to Play the Pennsylvania University Eleven on Thursday.

Ithaca, N. Y., Nov. 26.—The Cornell eleven and substitutes left Ithaca to-night for Philadelphia, where on Thanksgiving they play their last game this season. The hospitals have given up the cripples, and to-day finds the Cornell eleven in prime condition with the exception, perhaps, of Capt. Wyckoff, who is suffering from a lame ankle. The team is considered the strongest that Cornell has put in the field this year. The players will enter the game with confidence, and it is believed here that Pennsylvania will have no walk-over. Cornell expects to win this game and much money is now being wagered, even up on Cornell. Cornell believes Pennsylvania will not have recovered from the fatigue of last Saturday's game, and will therefore not put up their usually strong game.

A Famous Prescription.

Repete quoties oportet.

Whetstone, M. D.

IN ENGLISH

"O Jupiter" Aid Us—

"With a hot drink before a Warm, cozy fire, bed well aired, Pretzinger's Catarrh Balm to be thoroughly snuffed up the nosrils before retiring Repeat as required."

The above prescription was published by Dr. Whetstone in a Cincinnati journal last winter and was copied by nearly all the leading journals of the country and it is probable that thousands of people, as a result, have tried its efficacy. In the original a hot lemonade was specially recommended as being the best sedative. If you keep your feet dry this winter you are not apt to take cold unless exposed to a draught or unless the house is badly heated or ventilated, but we will have rains and snow this winter thousands of people will be certain to take cold and Dr. Whetstone's prescription should be cut out and carefully preserved as it is a certain cure for a cold in the head, the incipient catarrh that so often follows will be cured and the inflammation reduced by the use of Pretzinger's Catarrh Balm. Pretzinger's not a secret medicine; its contents are well known and it is constantly precribed by physicians, and is kept by nearly every family as a preventive and cure for cold in the head. Serious cases of catarrh, accompanied by the horrible choking, are relieved at once as if by magic. Its use cannot be too highly recommended. Druggists sell it for 50 cents, or a small sample can be obtained by sending 2ct. stamps to Pretzinger Bros., Chemists, Dayton, Ohio.

They Didn't Wait.

Not long ago, in a town not a thousand miles from Bellefonte, a little incident happened that is worth telling about.

It seems that two of the town's best christian women were around collecting money to buy a new carpet for the Sunday school room. They went into a dentist's office and asked the dentist, who was also a prominent church worker, to contribute something towards buying the new carpet.

"Are you doing as our minister has told you to do, praying during the revival services?" asked the dentist.

The ladies were somewhat surprised at this question and after a moment's hesitation replied: "Well we must confess Dr. ——, that we haven't prayed as much as we might have done. But have you carried out the minister's instructions?" continued the ladies.

"Most assuredly so" replied the dentist. "I have prayed every hour, both day and night; and if you will kindly step into this back room, we will have a word of prayer right now."

This was too much for the money seeking women and they beat a hasty retreat out the door much to the embarrassment of the dentist. The church women now say they will give him a wide berth when ny collecting is to be done.

Charged With Murder.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Nov. 21.—James Fisher, who is charged with being an accomplice of Hendricks, Robinson and Kearney in the brutal murder of Barney Reick in this city in 1893, was placed on trial today. When court adjourned to-night eight jurors had been selected. Hendricks and Robinson, who are now serving twenty-year sentences in the eastern penitentiary, both declare that Fisher is innocent. A writ of habeas corpus has been served on Warden Cassidy to produce these convicts in court here to-morrow, and they will be used as witnesses in Fisher's behalf. The district attorney is being assisted by John T. Lenahan and Fisher is being defended by J. F. Shea, P. A. Oberle and E. E. McGovern. The case promises to be hard fought legal battle.

Harvard Takes a Rest.

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 21.—The Harvard eleven went through a little light signal practice this afternoon and to-night left for Auburndale, where they will rest until the game with Pennsylvania Saturday. Capt. Brewer, of Harvard, and Arthur Knipe, of Pennsylvania, were in conference five hours this afternoon on the subject of officials. No agreement was reached, though Bliss will probably be referee. Harvard objected to both Williams and Corbin as umpires.

The Harvard field is in poor shape, and if the weather is warm enough for a thaw there will undoubtedly be a muddy surface.

Several Appointments Made.

Harrisburg, Nov. 21.—A meeting of the board of public grounds and buildings was held to-day, when Joseph Nesbit, of Lewisburg, was appointed state superintendent of the improvements at the Danville hospital, and H. N. Frenneman, of Lancaster superintendent of the Warrensville hospital improvements.

They are appointed under the act of 1895, providing for superintendents on the construction of state buildings. The board awarded a contract to J. G. Coder of Harrisburg, to erect the fireproof magazine at the state arsenal.

Tramp Attacks an Operator.

Driftwood Gazette: A tramp attacked Operator Chatham early Sunday morning because he would not permit his tramp-ship to take a snooze in the office. Mr. Chatham ordered the tramp out, but the knight of the road declared his intention of going just whenever he got a "ready on," whereupon a brief but fierce struggle ensued, during which the telephone sustained considerable damage, but the tramp went out just the same. Mr. Chatham sustained no bodily injuries during the struggle beyond a sprained ankle.

Woodsman Killed.

A woodsman, named William Woods, a step-son of G. S. Gordon, who lives on a farm near Falls Creek, was killed near Ketner, Elk county, yesterday. He was working in a woods crew in which his brother Jack was also employed and a large limb falling from a tree struck him. His people at Falls Creek were apprised of his serious injury and a few hours later they were notified that he had died from the effects of the injury.—Dubois Courier.

TELL-TALE FACES.

PINCHED AND CAREWORN,

As Worn by Many American Women.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]

The "tell-tale face" is worn by many American women, and is a symptom of symptoms, a signal of distress.

While women do all in their power to hide their condition, the practised eye soon detects the trouble.

When pains and aches are felt in every part of the body, when faintness, dizziness, and that bearing-down feeling prevail, when loss of sleep and appetite are reducing flesh daily, when the society of friends is irksome, and the hopeless "blues" predominate, then the face is pinched, haggard, and careworn, and prompt relief is necessary, or a beautiful life will be sacrificed.

An American woman, Lydia E. Pinkham, a student of women and their diseases, twenty years ago succeeded in producing an absolute cure for all diseases of women. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound stands to-day as it did then, pre-eminent.

Mrs. H. Wampler, of Barabo, Wis., whose letter we were permitted to publish last year, writes that she hopes Mrs. Pinkham will continue to use her name, as the publication in newspapers of the account of her own wonderful cure and relief from years of misery has been the means of influencing many suffering women to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and become well like herself. Mrs. Wampler feels, and rightly, too, that in this way she is doing a great good.

THE HUSBAND WAS INSANE.

And His Wife Made a Brave and Successful Fight For Life,

Shamokin, Pa., Nov. 20.—The heroic fight made by a woman not only saved her own life, but the lives of her three children, when assailed last night by her maniac husband. Crazed by illness Enoch Zabeen arose from his bed, seized a knife and fought wildly to cut his wife's throat, and to destroy the little ones, who were asleep in an adjoining room. To-day Zabeen was declared to be insane and was taken to the state asylum at Danville.

During the night Mrs. Zabeen was awakened from sleep, and was astonished to see her husband, who had been ill with grip, bound up the stairs to her bed room. Seeing his wild condition she sought refuge behind the bed. He at once prang upon her and tried to slash at her neck with a knife, but she warded off the blow with her arm. Then clasping him tightly she tried to disarm the maniac. A hard struggle ensued.

Finding he could not kill her, Zabeen slipped from his wife's grasp and rushed in to kill the children, who were sleeping in an adjoining room. Before he had time to make one thrust his brave wife again threw herself upon him. The children's shrieks attracted the neighbors, who appeared in time to prevent an awful tragedy, as Mrs. Zabeen had become exhausted from her heroic battle. Zabeen was tied with ropes and this morning was taken to the asylum.

When the Chill Mists of the Morning

Hang like a pall over the surface of the earth, it will be well for you before venturing into the raw vaporous air, charged, perhaps, with the seeds of malaria or provocative of rheumatic twinges, to take a wineglassful of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters and thus shield yourself from atmospheric influences threatening to health. If you happen to get snowed, sleeted or rained upon, use the same preventive, and avoid the rheumatism or a dangerous cold. The agreeable warmth infused into the circulation by this genial stomachic, it invigorating and regulating properties commend it to all appreciative of the fact that prevention is better than cure. Use the Bitters for dyspepsia, billiousness, neverousness and kidney troubles sick headache and debility.

He Got Five Years.

Belvidere, N. J., Nov. 2.—Grant Keller, of Easton, pleaded guilty in the Warren county court here of horse stealing and Judge Morrow sentenced him to two years in state prison at hard labor. Keller learning that the sheriff had arranged to take him to Trenton to-day, made an effort to break jail last night. He was again brought before the court this morning and his sentence increased to five years. This so incensed Keller that he became violent and with clenched fist made a move toward the judge, calling him a vile name. Keller was hastily removed by the sheriff, and at 1 p. m. was taken to the depot, hand cuffed to Edward Wertz, colored, who was also sentenced to state prison for two years for highway robbery.

Judge Norcross was also at the station, intending to take the same train. As he was stepping on the car, Keller in the custody of the sheriff, was brought up behind. Keller, still in a rage, made a desperate break. He kicked the judge and at the same time, by a superhuman effort, attempted to force him under the wheels of the starting train. The sheriff and passengers succeeded in rescuing the judge, who ordered the desperado returned to the county jail, and he will now be given twenty yerrs. Keller was in a frightful rage at being defeated in his terrible purposes, and vows that he will take the life of the judge if he himself lives to regain his libertv.

Soldiers' Orphan Schools.

Harrisburg, Nov. 22.—Over $10,000,000 have been expended by the state in the instruction of its soldiers' orphans since the establishment of the schools. The forthcoming report will also show that there have been over 15,000 admissions. At present there are four schools, at Uniontown, Chester Springs, Harford and Scotland, the latter being the new industrial school which was opened in September last. The next legislature will be asked for an appropriation to establish the cottage system at Scotland for the thousand orphans which it is proposed to transfer from the other three schools. The lack of revenue prevented the last legislature from making a sufficient appropriation to carry out the entire plan of the soldiers' orphans commission.

For Men Society.

What is the use of dressing up to pay a call when that cough makes you a burden to yourself and a nuisance to your friends? Take something for it. There is nothing as good as a twenty-five cent bottle of Ely's Pineola Balsam, which is soothing to the throat and beneficial in all diseases of the throat and lungs. It will relieve the cough at once and in a few days you will almost forget that you have had a cough.

An Iron Master Dead.

Reading, Pa., Nov. 20.—John G. Kauffman, one of the best known iron masters in eastern Pennsylvania, died to-day at his beautiful residence at Leesport, this county, aged 84 years.

NARROWLY ESCAPED DEATH.

W. B. Maitland Plunges Head First Down a 15 foot Stairway.

About 9.30 Thurs. morning W. B. Maitland, the boiler maker, met with an accident that might have cost him his life. As it was he was seriously injured.

It seems he was working at his shops which are located near the P. R. R. passenger station, this morning and unfortunately was alone at the time. Needing something that happened to be upstairs he climbed up a pair of stairs about fifteen feet high. In coming down, in some way he tripped and went crashing head first down the wooden steps to the floor below. When taken home he was unconscious and it was found that his injuries were more serious than at first believed to be. How he escaped with his life is a mystery hard to explain. At the foot of the stairs in the shops were piled timber, iron and other hard material and it is a great wonder his brains were not crushed out when his head struck the floor. An examination was made and it was found that he had sustained injuries about the left eye and ear and also that his left shoulder was badly hurt. When seen at the house Mr. Maitland was resting as easy as could be expected although he is pretty badly bruised up. This is the second accident he has met with within a few weeks, as only a short time ago he had his fingers mashed by being hit with a hammer while helping repair a boiler.

One of the Finest.

Powell at Garman's opera house on Wednesday evening was a great success. It was his first appearance in Bellefonte and he truly won the confidence and admiration of everybody who had the pleasure of seeing him. He performed his many tricks with a smoothness and skill that indeed was marvelous and it was the candid opinion of every one who saw him on Wednesday evening that he really surpasses Kellar. It is very probable that Powell will appear in Bellefonte again in a short time and we predict for him a crowded house.

Fisher's Comedians.

In that glorious farce comedy, "A Cold Day," we will welcome Abe, Baby and Jake. Whoever has seen "A Cold Day" will remember them. They are hard to beat. This year they have all the new songs up to date. Manager Garman has a good drawing card in "A Cold Day' and whoever has not seen it, should avail themselves of this opportunity. This is its ninth season, which fact alone guarantees its success.

This furiously funny attraction will be at Garman's opera house on Thursday evening, Nov. 28. Seats are now on sale at Parrish's drug store.

The Wife Released.

Phœnixville, Pa., Nov. 22.—The district attorney of Montgomery county released from jail to-day Mrs. Thomas Elwyn, whose husband last Friday killed his two children, by cutting their throats and then made an unsuccessful attempt at suicide. Mrs. Elwyn was arrested on a charge of infidelity to her husband. She will soon again become a mother and for this reason she has been released.

A Small Judicious Investment Often Brings a Fortune.

DEAR READERS:

We have heard from many of you during the brief period that our advertisement appeared in this space. Any others desiring full reports and statements can secure same by writing to us.

The further opening up of the South Central group of gold mines, and the erection of a Stamp Mill to reduce the company's ore to bullion, is a splendid, legitimate use of capital.

1. Mr. Barry, formerly of Cripple Creek, the Bonanza gold camp of Colorado, sold his interests there, and bought the Morning Star gold mine, a producer in the vicinity of the South Central group.

2. Captain Plummer, formerly of the Granite Mountain mine, is now working the Delamar Mine, a large producer in the vicinity of the South Central group.

As the Granite Mountain (Gold and Silver Mining Co.) stock rose from about twelve cents a share to over $50 a share, and paid from 25 cents to 50 cents per share per month in dividends, under the superintendency of Captain Plummer, we consider him a pretty safe guide to follow in mining, and we invite you to participate in the investment.

Orders received within a reasonable time, on or accompanied by the following coupon [Mention this paper,] will be filled at

SORROW AT COLEVILLE.

Typhoid Fever Claims the Soul of Mrs. William Ammerman.

Another home has been made desolate; and another soul has been rushed before its maker from that dreaded scourge—typhoid fever, which has already made so much sorrow at Coleville. This time it carried away Mrs. William Ammerman aged about 24 years. Death came about 6 o'clock Saturday evening after an illness of about two months. The funeral was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the late residence of the deceased and was largely attended by the many friends and relatives.

While there have not been so many deaths of late in that neighborhood yet there seems to be considerable disease yet lurking there among the different families. Aalready many deaths have resulted from this disease and still there seems to be no letting up in the death rate. It is to be hoped the coming cold weather will prove beneficial in stopping the futher spreading of this plague.

They Were Greedy.

On Friday evening the Bellefonte High School foot ball team drove over to Philipsburg to play a game of foot ball with the High school team of that place on Saturday. On Saturday evening it was reported that the Belletonte boys had been defeated by the score of 52 to 0. This seemed impossible and we came to the conclusion that the Bellefonte boys had failed to get to Philipsburg and were lost in the mountains and that the Philipsburg boys had gone out and played the game without any opposing team. On Sunday morning about 7 o'clock the High School boys got home and then we learned that they had been simply wallopped at will and that the score which we had first heard was only too true, This is down right cruelty and we think the Philipsburg boys are greedy things.

The Roll Call.

Bellorini has been appointed inspector of an educational establishment. Entering upon his functions, he addressed the pupils as follows:

"Attention, young gentlemen, will now call over the names, but as the old method takes too long I will simplify it thus: All those who are absent raise their hands." Motto per Riders.

Presented With a Cane.

On Sunday evening the trustees of the Bellefonte Standard lodge No. 3562 of the Grand United Order of Odd Fellows, presented to Rev. H. A. Grant of the A. M. E. church, a gold-headed cane. It was a neat gift and was greatly appreciated by Rev. Grant.

On a Long Trip.

On Monday evening James Kelley, who is well known in Bellefonte, started on a long trip. He intends to visit the city of Cork, in Ireland. This will be a very enjoyable journey as Mr. Kelley will thus visit his former home. He expects to be gone about six months.

Getting Better.

It was reported on the streets Monday that Hugh Beaver, son of Judge Beaver was dangerously ill last night. Upon investigation we found this to be untrue and instead of being any worse he is, we are glad to say, getting better.

A Disgrace.

There is some rotten cabbage in or some place near Bellefonte, and the odors that arise from it are something terrible. On Saturday evening this decaying vegetable caused such a stench that it could be noticed on High street almost up to Allegheny. It seems to come from some place in the neighborhood of Spring creek up near the island. Whether this is the decaying cabbage near the car works or not we cannot say, but wherever it is, the Board of Health should take steps to remove it. It cannot help but breed disease and an epidemic may result. Whoever owns it should be made suffer for such negligence as it is a disgrace to our town and an insult to our citizens that they must bear such a thing.

"A Cold Day."

Fisher's "A Cold Day" company will be the next attraction at the Opera House. It is one of the popular farce comdies of the times, and having been here before is already familiar with our theatre goers.

Perkins D. Fisher is a comedian of rare merit, and is always supported by a first class company of comedians. New songs, and new faces makes nearly a new show of "A Cold Day," therefore one never tires of seeing it. While this is its ninth season on the road, it is still classed among the leading farce comedies. At Garman's Opera House Thursday evening, Nov. 28. Seats on sale at Parrish's drug store.

A Complete Success.

The Reformed sociable at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Jared Harper on Thursday evening was a complete success in every way. Delicious refreshments were served and they sold at a lightning rate. An art gallery was one of the many features of amusement. In it one could see everything from an old shoe to an ear of corn. The sociable was lagely attended and the proceeds amounted to a good sum which will be used for the church.

A Large Buck.

Clyde Blackford, James Alexander, Mac McMurtrie and Simeon Haupt were a jolly party to the Green woods hunting deer. Clyde Blackford shot a large buck during the trip. It seems that Clyde is successful every year in shooting at least one or two.

Got Four Deer.

The hunting party to the Green woods, of which Editor Tom Harter was a member, returned on Saturday from a two week's trip. They had four large deer which they shot during their stay in the woods.

Assigned.

Samuel Lewin, who for many years has been in the tailoring and gents furnishing business in Bellefonte, made an assignment on Saturday evening to his creditors.

—A delightful rain was falling almost all of Saturday and Sunday much to the joy of the farmers.

—Pioneer colliery, at Osceola, operated by M. Liveright, which has been idle since away last summer, has been started up full blast.

—A little boy in the ice cold water in spring creek on Monday trying to "ketch suckers" was a sight to almost make the chills go down your back.

DANIEL GALLAGHER IS DEAD.

He Could Not Stand the Operation and Death Came to Relieve Him of His Suffering.

About a week ago Daniel Gallagher of this place went to Philadelphia to be operated upon for an abcess in the stomach. He had previously gone to Altoona to the hospital there but they were not able to help him in any way. The operation in the hospital in Philadelphia was made several days ago and it was thought that the patient would recover. Reports were received at different times and although some of them were not very encouraging, yet it was not thought that death was at any time near. A telegram was received Saturday stating that Gallagher was dead and would be brought home on Monday.

Daniel Gallagher was the son of James Gallagher and at the time of his death was about 27 years old. He has for about five years been employed by the Schadd Brothers in their plumbing establishment. His many friends will be pained to learn of his death as he was well known and liked among the young men in Bellefonte.

"Her grace of motion, and of look, the smooth
And swimming majesty of step and tread,
The symetry of form and feature, set
The soul afloat, even like delicious airs
Of flute and harp,"

For her matchless look of grace and motion this regal beauty was indebted to pefect health, restored by the of that matchless tonic, Dr. Piece's Favorite Prescription which set to herlthy action every function and gave purity and richness to the blood.

It is guaranteed for that class of ailments and weaknesses peculiar to women. Any one so afflicted can use it wite entire cerfainty of the same perfect health and regal beauty which men adore and the gods may envy.

Died on Tuesday.

On Tuesday morning at 7 o'clock, John M. McCoy, aged 77 years, died at his home in Potters Mills. The deceased was one of the best known citizens in that neighborhood and his demise will be keenly felt by his many friends. Although he had almost reached the four score mark, yet he was, up until a short time ago, able to move around. A few weeks ago he was compelled to take to his bed and he gradually became worse until death finally came to ease all suffering. The funeral will be held at 10 o'clock on Friday morning.

A Fine Matinee.

The "Cold Day" company will give a matinee at Garman's opera house on Thanksgiving afternoon. This matinee will be something fine and, no doubt, will be largely attended. Another performance will be given in the evening.

An Important Office.

To properly fill its office and functions, it is important that the blood is pure. When in such a condition, the body is almost certain to be healthy. A complaint at this time is catarrh in some of its various forms. A slight cold develops the disease in the head. Droppings of corruption passing into the lungs bring on consumption. The only way to cure this disease is to purify the blood. The most obstinate cases of catarrh yield to the medicinal powers of Hood's Sarsaparilla as if by magic, simply because it reaches the seat of the disease, and by purifying and vitilizing the blood, removes the cause. Not only does Hood's Sarsaparilla do this but it gives renewed vigor to the whole system, making it possible for good health to reign supreme.

Buried Friday.

The funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Harvey Ginter were held at the United Brethren Church Friday morning at 11 o'clock. Rev. C. C. Miller conducted the last rites after which interment was made in the Union Cemetery.

"A Cold Day."

There will be nothing but fun and music at the opera house on Thanksgiving evening. Fisher's comedians have an excellent reputation, and this company comes highly recommended. This is their ninth season. Each year there is something new in "A Cold Day" and one never tires of seeing it. If you want to enjoy yourself and laugh don't miss seeing it. It is a great show for the "blues," or "that tired feeling."

—It has been calculated that assuming the heart to beat sixty-nine times a minute at ordinary heart pressure, the blood goes at the rate of 207 yards in the minute, or seven miles per hour, 168 miles per day, and 61,350 miles per year.

Buried To-day.

The funeral services over the remains of Daniel Gallagher, who died in Philadelphia while undergoing an operation, were held Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock from his late residence on Potter street.
